Dear Parents /Guardians:

Project Youth is a licensed Afterschool Program that is available to students at Brown, Hillside and Middle School in Berlin (grades K-8), as well as Edward Fenn and Gorham Middle School students (Grades K-8).

The programs provide homework support and enrichment activities that are linked to the school day for the Arts, Math, English, Science and many other areas. The programs are designed to improve academic achievement and expand social/emotional opportunities for growth. Activities are active, experiential, and focus on service learning, technology, arts, health, physical activity, nutrition, and violence/bullying prevention. Teachers report that most students participating in the Afterschool Program have improved their reading and math grades, have turned in more complete homework assignments, and have a more positive attitude towards school.

If you would like to enroll your child in the Project Youth Afterschool Program you must submit the following:

- A completed Project Youth Enrollment Form
- A Parent Handbook Signature Form acknowledging you and your child understand expectations
- A copy of your child's most recent health form/physical from his/her physician
- A copy of our child's most recent immunization record from his/her physician
- $10.00 registration fee ($15.00 total for a family of two or more). * The programs charge a small fee for participation; please see our sliding fee scale on the back of this page to determine your fee. Checks can be made payable to Project Youth or the Family Resource Center.

If you have any questions about the programs, the fees, or the registration process please call the numbers below and we'll be glad to assist. Completed forms may be returned to the Afterschool Program Site Director at your child's school or to the Project Youth office at the Family Resource Center in Gorham.
